

Cucalorus 20 and Sister Cities Association of Wilmington invite you to a day of cinematic art, interesting conversation, & culinary magic.....think great independent film meets new Southern cuisine on

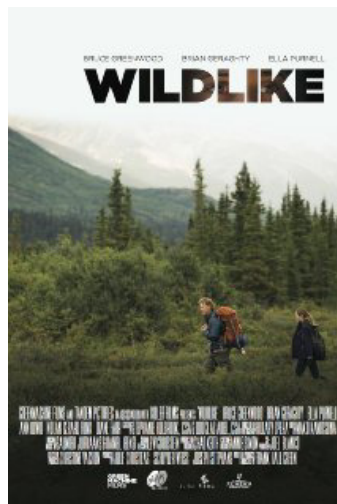

SUNDAY NOVEMBER 16, 2014

MOVIE AND A DINNER

Featuring

WILDLIKE

Directed and written by Frank Hall Green the story follows 14 year old Mackenzie, a young woman shipped off by her unwitting mother from one bad situation to another. The film is set in Alaska and cinematographer Hilary Spera captures both the grandeur of the environment and how physically isolating it can be. Thalian Hall Main Stage - Screening begins at 4:00 PM

Invite some friends for dinner and a movie on the closing day of Cucalorus 20. Tickets are $40.00 per person which gives you admission to the film and dinner afterwards. The entree choices selected by executive chef James Doss for Sister Cities will reflect his commitment to using the best locally sourced ingredients to create unique Southern-style cuisine. Alcohol can be purchased on a separate tab.

Dinner will be hosted by Rx Restaurant, 421 Castle St., immediately following the film

*Ticket price includes admission to Wildlike and choice of 2 specially selected entrées along with a side salad, and dessert for dinner

Checks should be made payable to SCWA and mailed to PO Box 1865, Wilmington, NC 28402. Questions: 910-343-5226 or membership@scawilmington.org. Advance reservations will be accepted through November 12. Sorry no refunds for this event.
